

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHORE ANGLING

IRELAND

ARKLOW 2020

29TH UNDER 16 & 20TH UNDER 21

10TH-17TH OCTOBER 2020

Energy for generations

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Céad Míle Fáilte!

On behalf of the Irish Federation of Sea Anglers – welcome all anglers and friends to Ireland.

You are here to compete in the World Shore Youth Angling Championships in Arklow, Co.

Wicklow, also known as the Garden of Ireland. Your first objective is the Angling Championship, but this is also a time to renew old friendships and make new ones.

The fishing here may be different, the fish may be larger, but you have all earned a position on a team to represent your country – you may have been selected by different methods but you are all internationals and are about to compete with the best youth anglers from other nations and some of you for the first time .

I want you all to enjoy the best of angling with good catches. We wish you all the best of sport and the best of luck.

For those of our guests who may not be taking part in angling, it is time for you to visit some of the most beautiful parts of Ireland, or indeed, just relax and do nothing. There is much to see and as organisers we will do our very best to assist you in any request that you may have.

We want you all to experience our famous Irish hospitality.

Thar ceann Cónaidhm Slatiascairí Farraige na hÉireann – Fáilte roimh dúanaí agus a gcairde go hÉirinn.

Tá sibh anseo ar an gcéad dul síos chun páirt a ghlacadh i gCraobh Domhanda den Chomórtais Iascaireachta Cladaigh do Dhaoine Óga san Inbhear Mór i gCill Mhantáin “Gairdín na hÉireann” a thugtar ar an áit seo, chomh maith. An príomh cuspóir atá agaibh anseo ná an Comórtas Iascaireachta, ach beidh deis agaibh chomh maith buaileadh le seancairde agus cairdí nua a dhéanamh Seans mhaith go bhfuil an iascaireacht difriúil anseo, b'fhéidir go bhfuil na héisc níos mó, ach tá sibh anseo inniu mar tá áit tuillte agaibh ar bhur bhfoireann náisiúnta, b'féidir go raibh bealaí cáilithe éagsúla agaibh, ach is iascairí idirnáisiúnta sibh uilig agus beidh sibh in iomaíocht leis na hiascairí óga is fearr ó náisiúin éagsúla, cuid agaibh ag glacadh páirt i gcomórtas don chéad uair.

Tá súil agam go mbainfidh sibh taitneamh as an iascaireacht agus go mbeidh gabhálacha maithe agaibh.

Guíonn muid gach raith oraibh.

Do na daoine nach bhfuil ag glacadh páirt sa chomórtas, tapaigí an deis cuairt a thabhairt ar ceann do na háiteanna is deise in Éireann, ná suí síos agus ligigí bhur scíth. Tá go leor le feiceáil agus mar eagraitheoirí, déanfaidh muid ár ndícheall cuidiú libh.

Tá súil againn go bhfeicfidh sibh an céad míle fáilte cáilúil atá ag Muintir Na hÉireann.

Pat Walsh, President, Irish Federation of Sea Anglers

CHAIRPERSON'S ADDRESS

Welcome, my fellow angler friends to Ireland, for the 20th U21 and 29th U16 World Shore Angling Championships.

As Chairman of the Irish Federation of Sea Anglers we look forward to giving the competitors, officials and guests a Céad Míle Fáilte (“A Hundred Thousand Welcomes”).

The Championships will take place in the scenic Wicklow and Wexford areas, and our headquarters will be in the 4 star Arklow Bay Conference & Leisure Hotel, which is an ideal location for all angling and non-angling guests.

Wishing everyone a happy and safe stay in our Country, and Tight Lines to all the competitors.

Danny Kane,
Chairman, Irish Federation of Sea Anglers

WICKLOW / ARKLOW, IRELAND

Arklow, Co Wicklow, Ireland

Arklow is a vibrant coastal town, surrounded by mountains and sea, on the east coast of Ireland in County Wicklow, which is the area known as the 'Garden of Ireland'. Half-way between the capital city Dublin and Rosslare Europort in Wexford, Arklow is well connected by motorway, rail and bus services from both entry points.

Arklow, in Irish is 'An tInbhear Mór', meaning "the great estuary" and here sits the beautiful 19 Arches Bridge, the longest hand-build stone bridge in Ireland. In the shadows of the Wicklow Mountains National Park, which is Ireland's largest protected park, Arklow is also close to many stunning beaches including Brittas Bay, Clogga and Arklow South Beach.

The town was first established about 2000 years ago and is named after Arknell, a fearsome 9th century Viking warrior leader. Arklow has a long and interesting history, especially with the sea and its strong seafaring and ship building heritage still carries on today.

Arklow is not only a perfect base for Shore Angling but also for exploring all that the Wicklow Outdoors has to offer, as well as being a short distance from some of the most popular attractions in Ireland's Ancient East.

Check out www.visitwicklow.ie for tourist information.

Top things to do within 20 minutes drive

Arklow Maritime Heritage Museum

Bridgewater Shopping Centre, Arklow North Quay.

Distance from Arklow: 0km

www.arklowmaritimeheritage.ie

A small but interesting museum celebrating Arklow's boat building, lifeboat and fishing traditions. Find on display photographs of the port dating back to the mid-19th century as well as models of vessels built in Arklow, tools, navigational equipment, paintings and artefacts. Charges apply.

Avoca Handweavers

Avoca Mill, Avoca Village

Distance from Arklow: 9km

www.avocahandweavers.com

Avoca Handweavers is a famous tourist destination, with a free Visitor Centre which tells the story of Ireland's oldest weaving mill, since 1723, and a Mill Tour where you meet the weavers at work. Built on the banks of the Avoca River from where it used to draw its power, you'll also find a large Avoca Gift Store and Café.

National Botanic Gardens

Kilmacurragh, Kilbride

Distance from Arklow: 13km

www.botanicgardens.ie

Around the ruins of a fine Queen Anne style house lie 52 acres of wild Robinsonian gardens. Began in 1712 and further expanded with the advice of the Directors of the Botanic Gardens in Dublin during the 19th Century. Rare trees and shrubs abound. The arboretum is now being replanted by the National Botanic Gardens, Glasnevin. No charges apply.

Mount Usher Gardens

Ashford

Distance from Arklow: 22km

www.mountushergardens.ie

Created by four generations of the Walpole family beginning in 1868, Mount Usher is recognised at home and abroad as one of the earliest and finest examples of a 'Robinsonian' garden. Extending to 22 acres, it combines a champion collection of trees and shrubs with inspirational floral planting schemes along both sides of the River Vartry. Charges apply.

Glendalough Monastic Village & Wicklow Mountains National Park, Glendalough

Distance from Arklow: 31km

www.wicklowmountainsnationalpark.ie

www.glendalough.ie

For thousands of years people have been drawn to Glendalough 'the valley of the two lakes' for its spectacular scenery, rich history, archaeology and abundant wildlife. It now attracts almost 1 million visitors a year and is not to be missed. It is free to visit the 6th century round tower, monuments, lakes and hiking trails, however a small car parking fee applies.

Wicklow's Historic Gaol

Kilmantin Hill, Wicklow Town

www.wicklowshistoricgaol.com

Wicklow Gaol is a former prison, now a museum and claims to be one of the world's most haunted buildings! Wicklow Gaol tells the story of its prisoners through an interactive tour led by actor guides and via the new 'Gates of Hell' Virtual Reality experience. Charges apply.

Powerscourt Estate

Enniskerry

Distance from Arklow: 40km

www.powerscourt.com

Powerscourt is a large country estate which is noted for its stunning Palladian Mansion, originally a 13th-century castle, and extensive landscaped gardens, voted 3rd best gardens in the world by National Geographic. Close by you can visit Powerscourt Waterfall - at 121 metres it is the highest waterfall in Ireland. Also on the estate are the Powerscourt Distillery, where you can do a whiskey tasting tour, the Cool Planet Visitor Experience, Ireland's first Climate Change Education attraction and two Championship Golf Courses. Charges apply to all attractions.

Lough Tay / The Guinness Lake

Sally Gap, Roundwood

Distance from Arklow: 49km

www.visitwicklow.ie/item/lough-tay-guinness-lake

One of the most photographed locations in Ireland, The Guinness Lake is so called because the lake, with its white beach and black water, is said to resemble a pint of Guinness. Lough Tay itself is on private property and cannot be visited, but it can be viewed from the Sally Gap road. Fans of the 'Vikings' TV series will recognise this location! No charges apply.

ESSENTIAL ANTI-DOPING ADVICE

ANTI-DOPING AGENCY
play true

Athletes are reminded if they take any medication they must check it against the WADA Prohibited Substance & Methods list.

Particular attention must be paid to the use of anti-hypertensive agents, especially diuretics, which are popular in singular preparation and/or in a combination with other normally permitted drugs.

Diuretics are always forbidden.

For these reasons, it is necessary for every athlete or National Federation to check the list for prohibited substances and process a TUE as necessary. The Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) must be granted before taking a prohibited medication.

An application for a TUE must be requested 30 days before taking part in the championships. The application forms must be filled in carefully with your physician/doctor who must authorise the application. A physician's certificate or prescription on its own does not mean that the athlete has permission to use the prohibited substance or method.

The application should be completed either in English or French and sent directly to the office of the CIPS President.
